Advanced Strategic Planning and Implementation of Strategic Plans for Institutional Excellence EFQM

REF: C1495 DATE: 26 August - 6 September 2024 Venue: Trabzon (Turkey) - Fee: 8775 Euro

Introduction:

If the organization seeks to achieve limited improvement, it may be achieved through the day-to-day management practices and practices, but the situation is different if the development and overall improvement of the organization's operations are to be extended to all parts of the organization. However, a change is required in terms of the required development, i.e., the need for substantial improvements to the Mission's core mission, as well as for its general purposes, and therefore for its detailed objectives. All this requires strategic planning, which represents the means by which to consolidate all the activities of the Organization and achieve coordination between the organizational levels. This program aims at how to achieve quality in the process of strategic planning in accordance with the model of European institutional excellence.
