Strategic Sourcing: The Optimum Approach to Buying

REF: L2066 DATE: 16 - 20 June 2024 Venue: Sharm El-Sheikh (Egypt) - Sheraton Sharm Hotel, Resort, Fee: 4095 Euro

Introduction

Best-in-class businesses understand the value that strategic sourcing creates and see it as essential to their overall growth goals. A company needs a variety of competencies to implement strategic sourcing and transfer value from supplier to customer along the supply chain in order to become a world-class procurement organization in the twenty-first century.

More than just the purchasing function's straightforward assignment of business to suppliers is strategic sourcing. It is a multifaceted process that results in an action plan spanning several years. The foundation of effective sourcing strategies is a thorough examination of the buy, the supply sector, and the core value drivers.
