Achieving Strategy through Leadership

REF: ST1259 DATE: 10 - 14 June 2024 Venue: London (UK) - Landmark Office Space Fee: 5300 Euro

Introduction:

Innovation is the key strategy of many businesses in the global competitive industries of the new century. New ideas can lead to programs, products, and services that can provide a distinct competitive advantage over competitors. With routine tasks becoming more automated and the competitive environment becomes more dynamic, creative problem solving and innovation will play an increasingly important role in determining the success of business leaders. Creativity is the process of generating new and useful ideas. Innovation is taking a new idea and putting it to use. The critical role of the leader is to create an environment where creativity and innovation flourish, and where people's innate resistance to the changes that require successfully overcome.

This course offers an opportunity to focus on the development and nurturing of people, processes, and practices that foster innovation to come up with better methods and services to outperform the competition. The training will demonstrate how to take the strategic plan and process to the next level and gaining the essential "buy-in" from all employees by a methodology proven by some of the world's largest corporations. Getting their energy, ideas, and changes to make the strategic process a success is essential and is the core of this program.
