

€ TRAINING

International Trade Law

22 - 26 July 2024
Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia)

International Trade Law

REF: U2130 DATE: 22 - 26 July 2024 Venue: Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) - Fee: 5300 Euro

Introduction:

The International Trade Law training course is designed for individuals who wish to gain a comprehensive understanding of the legal framework and principles that govern international trade. The course covers the legal, economic, and commercial aspects of international trade and provides a solid foundation for individuals working in the field of international trade, as well as for those looking to develop their knowledge and skills in this area.

Course Objectives:

At the end of this course, the participants will be able to:

- Analyze and interpret the legal principles and rules governing international trade
- Evaluate the structure and function of international trade agreements and their impact on businesses and the global economy
- Evaluate the role of international organizations and institutions in regulating international trade
- Apply the principles of dispute resolution in international trade and understand the mechanisms available for resolving disputes
- Assess the impact of international trade on various stakeholders, including businesses, consumers, and the environment
- Identify and evaluate current issues and trends in international trade law and their potential impact on the global economy
- Develop a comprehensive understanding of the legal, economic, and commercial aspects of international trade and its impact on businesses and the global economy.

Targeted Audience:

- Bank employees involved in international banking and commercial payments.
- Finance professionals working in international trade and finance.
- Compliance officers and legal professionals working in the banking and finance industry.
- Business owners involved in international trade.
- Students and professionals who wish to gain a comprehensive understanding of international banking and commercial payments.

Course Outlines:

Unit 1: International Trade Law Principles and Rules

- Overview of the legal principles and rules governing international trade, including the WTO agreements.
- Analysis of the legal framework for international trade, including the most favored nation principle, national treatment, and non-discrimination.
- Examination of the role of international organizations and institutions, such as the World Trade Organization, in regulating international trade.
- Study of the principles of transparency and predictability in international trade and their impact on businesses.
- Analysis of the impact of trade policies and measures, such as tariffs and trade barriers, on international trade.

Unit 2: International Trade Agreements

- Overview of international trade agreements and their structure and function.
- Evaluation of the negotiation and conclusion of trade agreements, including the role of trade negotiators and the process for ratifying agreements.
- Analysis of the impact of trade agreements on businesses, including market access, intellectual property rights, and the protection of domestic industries.
- Examination of the role of trade agreements in promoting regional integration and the formation of regional trade blocs.
- Study of the impact of trade agreements on the protection of the environment and human rights.

Unit 3: Dispute Resolution in International Trade

- Overview of the mechanisms for resolving disputes arising from international trade, including the role of the World Trade Organization.
- Evaluation of alternative dispute resolution methods, such as mediation and arbitration, in resolving international trade disputes.
- Analysis of the resolution of disputes involving trade remedies, such as anti-dumping and countervailing duties.
- Study of the role of the dispute settlement mechanism of the World Trade Organization and its procedures.
- Examination of the role of the dispute settlement mechanism in promoting the rule of law in international trade.

Unit 4: The Implications of International Trade

- Assessment of the economic, commercial, and legal implications of international trade on various stakeholders, including businesses, consumers, and the environment.
- Analysis of the impact of international trade on the balance of payments, exchange rates, and economic growth.
- Examination of the role of governments and international organizations in mitigating the negative impacts of international trade on the environment and human rights.
- Study of the impact of international trade on the distribution of income and wealth within countries and among countries.
- Examination of the role of international trade in promoting economic development and reducing poverty.

Unit 5: Current Issues and Trends in International Trade Law

- Overview of current issues and trends in international trade law, including the impact of technology and digitalization.
- Analysis of the role of e-commerce in international trade and its impact on businesses and consumers.
- Examination of the impact of digital technologies on the negotiation and conclusion of trade agreements.
- Study of the impact of data privacy and cybersecurity on international trade and the protection of personal data.
- Assessment of the challenges and opportunities presented by the rise of emerging economies in the global trade landscape and their impact on the international trade system.