Managing Health and Safety in the Workplace

REF: C615 DATE: 2 - 6 December 2024 Venue: Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) - Fee: 5850 Euro

Introduction:

Health and Safety in the Workplace provide those in managerial and supervisory positions with appropriate knowledge and understanding of the issues involved. You will learn how to reduce costs and improve profits with effective safety management

Health and safety technology and procedures are very important aspects of health and safety management. However, on their own, these will not provide continuous improvement in health and safety performance. It is necessary to have personnel with a sound understanding of the areas that can give rise to losses. The conference covers all the basic areas of Safety in the Workplace such as Safety Management, Safety Culture, Workplace Equipment, Hazardous agents, and Legislation
